

ENVIRONMENT, HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY

We are dedicated to life in its entire dimensions, in line with this mission, our company Essen Speciality Films Pvt. Ltd. is committed to human life, mother earth and environment by preventing and abating pollution through adopting robust environment management practise and continual improvement of environment, Health & Safety aspects.

We are committed to maintain the Environment, Health & Safety for all employees and our society. This shall be the top most priority and concern for our work Environment and Health & Safety for our community, in which we live.

Our Objectives:

- Comply with all statutory laws and other regulation pertaining to EHS.
- Operate and maintain equipment, facilities and processes in a safe manner.
- Prevent pollution at the source wherever and whenever possible.
- Continual assessment of EHS aspects for preventing and minimizing the pollution, occupational illnesses and injuries.
- Maintain and continually upgrade EHS management system.
- Preventing occupational hazards, ill health and protect the health of our employees & interested parties by maintaining a safe and secure work place
- Enhance EHS awareness amongst our employees, contractor and visitors through effective communication and need
- Respond sensitively to the responsibility to put into practice EHS policy and to establishing the culture in our company

This policy shall be made available to all the interested parties as and when required.

Director